

before the day prescribed for his entering upon the duties of his office, or before the annual levy of taxes is placed in his hands for collection, as the case may be, or in the event of the treasurer's removal from the county, death, resignation or removal from office for misconduct therein, the county commissioners shall declare said office vacant, and at once proceed to fill the same by appointment of a suitable person possessing the qualifications herein prescribed, for the remainder of the current term, who shall, within such time as the commissioners may direct, qualify and bond, as directed in the preceding section; and the County Commissioners are hereby authorized to remove the treasurer for any misconduct or neglect by him committed in the discharge of the duties of his office.

131. He shall perform all the duties now by law required to be performed by said clerk, or which may be required of him by any future law or by any order of the County Commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 63d.

132. He shall have the power, subject to the approval of the county commissioners, to appoint such assistant or assistants, at a compensation not exceeding eighteen hundred dollars in the aggregate, as he may deem necessary and proper for the faithful and efficient performance of the work of his office, and the assistant or assistants so appointed shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of this State, and shall execute such bond or bonds as the said clerk may require.

1906, ch. 171, sec. 62e.

133. He shall have charge of all records, books and so forth, belonging to the office of the county commissioners, and shall not allow any of them to be removed or taken from said office, except in obedience to a summons or order of a court of law or equity of this State, and shall deliver the same to his successor.

Ibid. sec. 62f.

134. He shall collect all taxes levied by the county commissioners, and shall receive all moneys due to said county from any source whatever, and shall disburse the same under the provisions of law and the order of the county commissioners. It shall be his duty to promptly deposit all monies and receipts by him collected in some bank, or banks, or banking institution or institutions of Montgomery county, to be approved by the county commissioners, and it shall be obligatory
